USICH Update

Effective this week, Robert G. Marbut is no longer the Executive Director of the United States Interagency Council on Homelessness. As the Alliance awaits news of the next appointee to this position, it urges the Biden Administration to seek candidates who have a thorough knowledge of homelessness and its solutions, familiarity with the research, and practical experience working with communities to solve the problem in a non-partisan manner.

The Alliance looks forward to continued collaboration and partnership with the Council, in its extraordinarily important efforts to coordinate the federal response to homelessness.
